3.

Defendants USSO LLC, Igovincent, Inc., Cary V. Quattrocchi, Benny W. Butler, Taparu

Inc. d/b/a ThrillPlanet.com and Adventure Sports, LLC shall be referred to herein as the "SkyRide Defendants," and Defendant Atlanta SC, Inc., CASC, Inc., and Tandora, Inc. shall be referred to herein as "Defendant Atlanta SC".

4.

The SkyRide Defendants and Defendant Atlanta SC are enjoined from violating the Georgia Fair Business Practices Act of 1975 ("FBPA"), O.C.G.A. §§ 10-1-390 through 10-1-407.

5.

The SkyRide Defendants and Defendant Atlanta SC are hereby ordered to respond to all requests for information and documents made by the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs ("OCA") regarding the monitoring of the SkyRide Defendants and Defendant Atlanta SC's compliance with the FBPA and the terms of this Order, within the time period set forth by OCA. The OCA shall have the sole discretion to extend the time for a response to a request for information and documents from the SkyRide Defendants and Defendant Atlanta SC.

The SkyRide Defendants are hereby enjoined from representing or otherwise allowing the consumer to believe that the time, date, and adventure sport or experience requested by the consumer have been confirmed and the requested reservation or appointment has been made with an affiliate, partner, or vendor when it has not been so confirmed or made.

7.

Except for the purchase of a gift certificate, the SkyRide Defendants are hereby enjoined from requesting or otherwise receiving payment information from a consumer unless and until the SkyRide Defendants have verified the availability of the time, date, and adventure sport or experience requested by the consumer with the affiliate, partner, or vendor who will be providing the requested service.

8.

Prior to receiving or requesting payment information from a consumer, the SkyRide Defendants are hereby ordered to provide accurate information to consumers concerning the approximate driving distance from the location where the consumer will be traveling to the site where services are to be provided. In calculating the approximate driving distance, the SkyRide Defendants shall use the physical street addresses for the consumer and the affiliate, partner, or vendor. If one or both of the physical street addresses are not available, the SkyRide Defendants shall use the zip codes of the consumer and the affiliate, partner, or vendor.

Prior to receiving or requesting payment information from a consumer, the SkyRide Defendants are hereby ordered to provide the consumer with the approximate driving distance and state of the site where the consumer will be receiving services or, in the case of the purchase of a gift certificate, the driving distance and state where the gift certificate may be redeemed by the purchaser or recipient of the gift certificate. In addition, with respect to gift certificates, the SkyRide Defendants shall inform consumers that some of the adventure sports or experiences have limited availability at certain times of the year and that, in order to increase the likelihood that a requested schedule will be confirmed, gift certificate holders should make scheduling requests at least thirty (30) days in advance of the requested date, time, and adventure sport or experience and provide at least two (2) alternate dates.

Except for the purchase of a gift certificate, the SkyRide Defendants are hereby enjoined from processing payment or otherwise requiring payment from a consumer unless the requested reservation or appointment has been made with the affiliate, partner, or vendor and within 24 hours of processing payment, the time, date, and adventure sport or experience requested by the consumer has been confirmed in writing to the consumer. At a minimum the written confirmation shall include the vendor name, business address, telephone number, and the location or area (e.g. the "Kennesaw Mountain area" or the "metropolitan Atlanta area") where the adventure sport or experience will occur, if different than the business address of the vendor.

Except for the purchase of a gift certificate, if the SkyRide Defendants cannot confirm the time, date, and adventure sport or experience with the affiliate, partner, or vendor requested by the consumer within twenty-four (24) hours of the consumer's request, the SkyRide Defendants are hereby ordered to contact the consumer and provide the consumer with the following options: (a) the consumer can select a different time, date, adventure sport or experience, or affiliate, partner, or vendor for the requested service; (b) the consumer can purchase a gift certificate which is good for two years from the date it is issued by the SkyRide Defendants at any of its affiliates, partners, or vendors; or (c) the consumer can cancel the request and will not be charged any amount or fees for the cancellation.

With respect to gift certificates, the SkyRide Defendants are hereby ordered to contact the consumer (whether the consumer be the original purchaser or current holder of the gift certificate) to inform him as to the status of any scheduling request within twenty-four (24) hours after receiving said scheduling request from the consumer. Within seven (7) days after receiving a scheduling request, the SkyRide Defendants shall contact the consumer by telephone and in writing to confirm at a minimum the time, date, and adventure sport or experience and the vendor name, business address, telephone number, and the location or area (e.g. the "Kennesaw Mountain area" or the "metropolitan Atlanta area") where the adventure sport will occur, if different than the address of the vendor. If the scheduling request cannot be confirmed at the end of the seven (7) day period, the consumer shall be notified of this fact and apprised of his options which shall include: (a) further efforts by the SkyRide Defendants to confirm the customer's requested schedule; (b) the consumer's selection of an alternate time and date for the requested activity, as well as the possible selection of an alternate activity of the same value; (c) other compensatory arrangements agreeable to the consumer; or (d) if the customer has made the scheduling request at least thirty (30) days in advance of the requested date and time for the adventure sport or experience, a full refund of the purchase price of the gift certificate without any amounts or fees deducted therefrom.

If at the time the holder of a gift certificate attempts to redeem said gift certificate and the holder determines that there are no affiliates, partners, or vendors within a reasonable distance from his physical address to schedule their adventure sport or experience, the SkyRide Defendants are hereby ordered to provide the holder of the gift certificate with the option to receive a full refund of the purchase price of the gift certificate without any amounts or fees deducted therefrom.

14.

The SkyRide Defendants are hereby enjoined from charging any additional fees for the purchasers or holders of gift certificates to schedule a reservation, appointment, or redeem said gift certificates.

15.

The SkyRide Defendants and Defendant Atlanta SC are hereby enjoined from providing consumers with untrue or inaccurate information concerning the reasons that their reservations or appointments that were previously confirmed by the SkyRide Defendants or Defendant Atlanta

SC have been canceled or must be otherwise changed or altered.

The SkyRide Defendants are hereby ordered to provide consumers with accurate information concerning the number of affiliates, partnerships, or vendors that they can utilize to 24.

The SkyRide Defendants are hereby enjoined from permitting, instructing, ordering, or otherwise allowing their employees, representatives, agents, or independent contractors to state or otherwise lead consumers to believe that they should purchase an adventure sport package or experience because the quoted price for an adventure sport package or experience is a special or discounted price that will expire, unless said statement is true.

25.

The SkyRide Defendants are hereby ordered to disclose the possible reasons for the cancellation of confirmed reservations and that refunds may not be available if a reservation is cancelled by the SkyRide Defendants or the vendor. The disclosure must be made prior to purchase of the adventure sport or experience.

26.

If a consumer agrees voluntarily to provide an alternate date for the adventure sport or experience that they are reserving, the SkyRide Defendants are hereby enjoined from requiring the consumer to take the adventure sport or experience on that alternate date if the consumer's primary date is not available.

The SkyRide Defendants are hereby enjoined from representing that they own or operate the facilities at which consumers will be participating in an adventure sport or experience, or that they employ the individuals at said facilities, unless such representations are true.

28.

The SkyRide Defendants and Defendant Atlanta SC are hereby enjoined from using language, trademarks, logos, or other images on their Web sites that may cause confusion as to the affiliation, partnership, sponsorship, or business relationship with a university or college, unless such affiliation, partnership, sponsorship, or business relationship with the university or college exists.

29.

The SkyRide Defendants and Atlanta SC are hereby enjoined from adopting a refund policy that violates the terms of this Order.

30.

All employees and/or independent contractors acting on behalf of the Defendants are to be trained in, and required to abide by, these policies and procedures.

38.

Within thirty (30) days of the entry of this Order, the SkyRide Defendants and Defendant Atlanta SC are hereby ordered to review all policies, procedures, and this Order with each principal, officer, director, employee or agent with supervisory authority or with oversight responsibility for training or managing salespersons, booking agents, reservationists, and sales and customer service representatives (including those whose responsibilities involve responding to customer inquiries and/or complaints, and processing customer purchases and/or refunds).

The SkyRide Defendants are hereby ordered to allow representatives of the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs to "test shop" the purchase of adventure trips and/or packages via the SkyRide Defendants' businesses for the next two (2) years, up to two (2) times per year, and for no more than two (2) tickets per "test shop" for the same date, time, adventure sport, and vendor, i.e., representatives of the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs shall pose as actual consumers, and go through the entire process of purchasing adventure packages and/or trips through the SkyRide Defendants' customer service agents or other representatives. To "unwind" a "test shop", the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs shall notify the SkyRide Defendants that it has conducted and completed a "test shop". 41.

The SkyRide Defendants are hereby ordered to pay restitution to the consumers listed in Exhibit "A" attached hereto. The SkyRide Defendants shall have twelve (12) months from the entry of this Order to provide restitution to the consumers listed in Exhibit "A," but shall make a good faith effort to provide restitution to one-half of the consumers listed in Exhibit "A" within six (6) months from the entry of this Order. On a quarterly basis for the next twelve (12) months from the entry of this Order, the SkyRide Defendants shall provide to the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs copies of bank documents, including cancelled checks (front and back), monthly balance statements, certified money order receipts, and/or other records that confirm the payment of refunds, in the full amounts as shown, to each consumer listed in Exhibit "A" attached hereto. Such amounts may be offset only to the extent that the SkyRide Defendants can produce records showing prior refunds (whether full or partial) paid, or the consumer's express acceptance of some other form of resolution to his matter with the SkyRide Defendants. If any payment to an affected consumer is returned as undeliverable, the SkyRide Defendants shall take or cause reasonable steps to be taken, including skip tracing, to locate the affected consumer. If, thereafter, the affected consumer or other consumer still is not located (or an affected consumer's or other consumer's check is not cashed within two months), any funds payable under this Paragraph or due to such affected consumer whose last known address is not deliverable, pursuant to this Order, shall be provided to the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs to be delivered to the Georgia Commissioner of Revenue pursuant to the provisions of the "Disposition of Unclaimed Property Act", O.C.G.A. § 44-12-190, et seq., to be processed as set forth in that Act. The SkyRide Defendants shall provide whatever available information is requested by the Commissioner to handle the funds as unclaimed property. The SkyRide Defendants shall deliver the cashier's or certified check and a report to the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs on a quarterly basis from the date of entry of this Order, which details the amount to be delivered to the Commissioner for treatment as unclaimed property under the above referenced statute.

Within sixty (60) days from the entry of this Order, Defendant Atlanta SC shall provide to the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs copies of bank documents, including cancelled checks (front and back), monthly balance statements, certified money order receipts, and/or other records that confirm the payment of refunds, in the full amounts as shown, to each consumer listed in Exhibit "E" attached hereto. Such amounts may be offset only to the extent that Defendant Atlanta SC can produce records showing prior refunds (whether full or partial) paid, or the consumer's express acceptance of some other form of resolution to his matter with Defendant Atlanta SC. If any payment to an affected consumer is returned as undeliverable, Defendant Atlanta SC shall take or cause reasonable steps to be taken, including skip tracing, to locate the affected consumer. If, thereafter, the affected consumer or other consumer still is not located (or an affected consumer's or other consumer's check is not cashed within two months), any funds payable under this Paragraph or due to such affected consumer whose last known address is not deliverable, pursuant to this Order, shall be provided to the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs to be delivered to the Georgia Commissioner of Revenue pursuant to the provisions of the "Disposition of Unclaimed Property Act", O.C.G.A. § 44-12-190, et seq., to be processed as set forth in that Act. Defendant Atlanta SC shall provide whatever available information is requested by the Commissioner to handle the funds as unclaimed property. Defendant Atlanta SC shall deliver the cashier's or certified check and a report to the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs within ninety (90) days from the entry of this Order, which details the amount to be delivered to the Commissioner for treatment as unclaimed property under the above referenced statute.

If Defendants fail to pay restitution as provided in paragraphs 41 and 42, upon motion by the Administrator, a judgment in the amount of $375,000.00 will be entered against them jointly and severally, and the amount collected by the Administrator shall be distributed as restitution to customers of Defendants. The balance remaining, if any, may be reserved by the Administrator for future compliance monitoring and enforcement actions against Defendants.

45.

The Court retains continuing jurisdiction over the SkyRide Defendants and Defendant Atlanta SC to ensure compliance with this order and future compliance with the Georgia Fair Business Practices Act of 1975, O.C.G.A. § 10-1-390 through 10-1-407.

Are there any age requirements?

Yes. You must be 18 years of age to skydive. There are exceptions to the age requirements in some states. Please give us a call for further inquiries.

Are there any physical requirements?

In general, the prospective student should be able to wear 30-40 pounds worth of equipment and be in a good physical shape. You will be required to walk short distances and handle the shock of the parachute deploying during your jump. If you have any health or physical problems, please contact your doctor and/or physician prior to making a reservation.

How fast do you fall?

You will be traveling anywhere between 115-130 miles per hour during your freetail.

How hard is the landing?

Landings on tandem skydives are in the hands of your instructor. They will typically land feet first or rear first. Both landings are normally very gentle. AFF jumps do not have a standard "impact" on landing. The landing will be completely up to the student and their abilities.

What if your parachute doesn't open?

According to FAA regulations, all parachute jumps must be made with a single harness, dual parachute system with both a main and reserve canopy. The reserve parachute must be inspected and repacked every 120 days by an FAA rated parachute rigger. All of our Utah Skydiving vendors and dropzones strictly adhere to these regulations to ensure your safety.

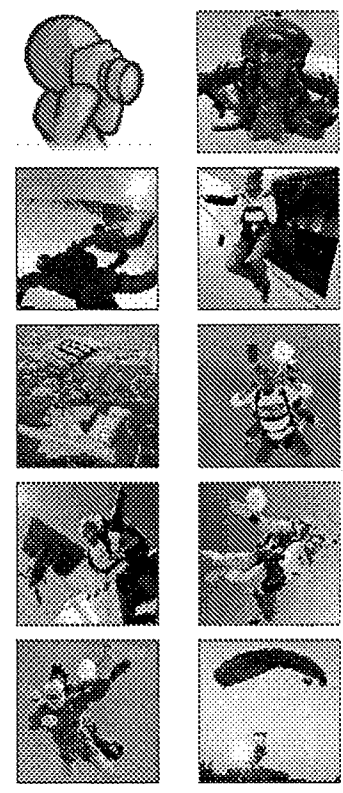

What does the Tandem jump consist of?

The tandem skydiving package starts with a 45 minute training class. After training is complete, you will then board the plane and start to climb to altitude. Once the aircraft reaches altitude, you will harness to your instructor and prepare for the most thrilling activity you will ever experience! Once the pilot gives the green light, you will jump out of the aircraft, attached to your instructor, and begin your descent! You will experience a 40 to 60 second free fall, and a 5 to 7 minute canopy ride. Once on the ground, you will be able to discuss the experience with fellow jumpers and local instructors!

What does the Accelerated Free Fall jump consist of?

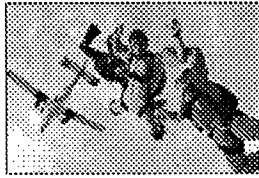

The accelerated free fall package consists of a 4 to 6 hour training class. After training is complete, you will then board the plane and start to climb to altitude. Once the aircraft reaches altitude and the pilot gives the green light, you will jump out of the aircraft and begin your descent! Two certified instructors will be jumping with you to ensure your safety and proper execution of each maneuver. Expect a 40 to 60 second freetail and a 5 to 7 minute canopy ride during your descent.

Glossary of Skydiving Terms:

AAD
(Automatic Activation Device) A device used to automatically deploy a parachute at the correct altitude.

AFF
(Accelerated Free Fall) A program that allows jumpers to experience skydiving without a tandem instructor attached to him/her.

What does the AFF Certification program consist of?

The AFF program consists of 7 different levels. Levels 1-3 require two AFF instructors to accompany you during the experience. Levels 4-7 only require one instructor and typically cost less than prior levels. Throughout the whole program, students will learn different techniques and skills, such as turns, forward movements, front flips, etc. After completing the AFF program, you are only 20 jumps away from receiving your A license!

How much does it cost?

Prices vary from facility to facility. Tandem jumps typically start right around $190 while AFF jumps are usually around $300. Video pricing varies. A quick call to Utah Skydiving will help you determine the exact cost at the dropzone nearest you.

What areas do you service in Utah?

Utah Skydiving is a part of the largest network of skydiving dropzones in the United States including locations within driving distance of Salt Lake City, West Valley City, Provo, West Jordan, and numerous other cities in Utah.

How do you breathe in freefall?

Breathing during freefall is not difficult in any way. Because of the pressure and high rate of speed, oxygen molecules will actually enter through your skin as well as your lungs until your parachute deploys.

What does the deployment of the parachute feel like?

Once the parachute is deployed, you will feel a slight tug throughout your body. The pressure is evenly distributed through your body because of the harness you will be wearing.

How far in advance should I make a reservation?

We recommend at least a one week notice when making a reservation. Larger groups should give earlier notice to ensure enough room to accommodate everyone for the same time slot.

We hope that this has answered some of your questions about skydiving in Utah. If you have more questions or would like to make a reservation now, contact Utah Skydiving and one of our skydiving experts will be happy to help you!

Flare

The action when both toggles on the canopy are pulled down in order to slow your descent rate and make the landing impact easier.

Opening Shock

The force experienced by the jumper due to sudden deceleration during parachute deployment.

I am inquiring about whether or not Michigan International Speedway accepts gift certificates from a company called 1-800-Skyride, Adventure Sports, ThrillPlanet.com <<http://thrillplanet.com/>> or IGOVincent, Inc.

Please let me know if you accept or do not accept certificates or coupons from that company.

Thanks, Jeff...
