Case No. 2:05-CV-2656 PHX-MHM
DECLARATION OF JAN MEYER

23 I, Jan Meyer, being first duly sworn upon my oath, depose and say:

24 1. I am over the age of 18 years old and competent to testify to the matters set 25 forth below.

26 2. I have performed website development services since approximately 1995
27 on behalf of my own businesses and on behalf of other third-party entities such as Intel 28 Corp. and Franklin Templeton. My website development experience includes software development and contract-based development services.

3. I am owner of the Internet website www.wheretojump.com and have continuously maintained that website since approximately 2005. This website allows a person to locate a skydiving center within a certain geographical location. Although my website will list all actual skydiving centers located within a particular area, it will

1 provide more information about a skydiving center if that center has paid an annual 2 advertising fee. Those who have paid a larger advertising fee will receive larger 3 advertising space on the website. This concept is similar to business advertisements that 4 appear in a Yellow Pages phonebook. (See e.g., Trial Exhibit 670 attached hereto as 5 Exhibit A.)

6 4. Before a skydiving center will be listed on www.wheretojump.com, 7 however, I will undertake certain activities to verify that the center is a bonafide actual 8 physical drop zone. These activities may include conducting in-person visits to the drop 9 zone and/or meeting with drop zone owners, and speaking with regional directors of the 10 United States Parachute Association who may have visited the locations.

11 5. I own and maintain the website www.FunJumper.com. This website
12 provides a variety of information to persons interested in skydiving. A link is available
13 from www.FunJumper.com that is entitled "Skyride Virtual Network." Through that link, 14 consumers can become aware of the existence of scams in the skydiving and other 15 industries so as to avoid getting mislead or cheated. For example, consumers can review 16 investigative news reports that have been conducted about 1-800-Skyride by members of 17 the broadcast media in numerous cities throughout the United States. My website also 18 provides links to scam alerts that have posted by others. My website explains some of the 19 deceptive tactics about which consumers should be wary. My website also lists the 20 various names and addresses that Ben Butler, Cary Quattrocchi, and their agents have 21 used or with which they have been or are affiliated, including 1-800-Skyride,
22 Thrillplanet.com, IGoVincent, soaringsports.com, skydiving.com, and Adventure 23 Skydiving.

24 6. My website www.FunJumper.com also informs consumers that certain 25 websites are knock-offs of a legitimate skydiving center located in Canada known as 26 Adventure Skydiving, Inc. owned by Tim Eason. Mr. Eason's website is 27 www.339.jump.com. (See Exhibit B at which a printout of the whois.domaintools.com is 28

1 provided showing that Mr. Eason is the owner of that domain and the registrant is 2 Adventure Skydiving as well as a printout of Adventure Skydiving in July 2005.) I know
3 and have spoken with Mr. Eason on numerous occasions including as recently as February 4 2010. Defendants own certain websites that mislead consumers into believing they are 5 affiliated with Mr. Eason's company and use the Adventure Skydiving logo. Some of the 6 offending websites owned by Defendants are: colorado-skydiving.com, 7 connecticutskydiving.com, skydivems.com, montanaskydiver.com, pittsburghskydive.com,
8 skydiveanaheim.com, skydivingal.com, and tnskydiving.com. (See Exhibit C containing 9 printouts dated February 9, 2010 of each website; see Exhibit D containing a printout of 10 the whois.domaintools.com for each website and showing Mr. Quattrocchi's companies
11 (e.g., IGOVincent, Inc. or USPO, LLC) as owner of the website.)

12 7. While I was a National Director with the USPA, I received a letter from Mr.
13 Eason dated May 6, 2005 that was sent to the USPA. In that letter, Mr. Eason explained 14 that he had sent emails to the knockoff websites that were using his name and logo asking 15 them to stop, and had called 1-800-Skyride, but the representative answering the phone 16 denied the company's involvement. Exhibit E.

17 8. Having reviewed the source code used by the foregoing websites owned 18 Defendants, I can confirm that Defendants copied Mr. Eason's source code because 19 certain tags found in the source code that Defendants copied and downloaded as their own
20 identifies the path to the Mr. Eason's server: <http://www.339jump.com/index.html>. Each 21 of the knock-off sites is a domain name registered to the 1-800-Skyride Defendants. (See 22 Exhibit F showing printouts of the source code for Defendants' websites.)

23 9. The information that I post to www.FunJumper.com often is sent to me by 24 third-parties. Before posting the information, I will investigate the information and follow 25 up on the lead.
26
27
28

1 10. Paragraph 32 of the Georgia Consent Order (Trial Exhibit 461 attached
2 hereto as Exhibit G) entered on August 18, 2008, requires Defendants to post
3 conspicuously on their websites their policy concerning refunds:

4 Within sixty (60) days of the entry of this order, the SkyRide
5 Defendants shall post conspicuously on their Web sites a 6 clearly written policy concerning the availability of refunds.
7 Such policy concerning refunds will be immediately
8 accessible via a link to the "Terms and Conditions" page of 9 each of the SkyRide Defendants' Web sites, to which 10 consumers are directly referred by a conspicuously placed 11 hyperlink or other symbol or phrase, located at the bottom of 12 the home page of the Web sites, and set in the same size
13 font/character type as that used in the main body of the page's
14 content. Furthermore, a link to the policy concerning refunds 15 via a "Terms and Conditions" link, shall be posted on the 16 home page of the SkyRide Defendants' Web sites. Moreover,
17 the policy concerning refunds shall be listed as the first term
18 on the "Terms and Conditions" page.

19 11. Defendants have not complied with the requirement about refunds on 20 numerous websites. For example, there is nothing about refunds or terms and conditions
21 anywhere on these websites: <http://www.1800skyride.com/Skydiving/tempe/index.html>;
22 <http://www.1800skyride.com/Skydiving/scottsdale/index.html>;
23 <http://www.1800skyride.com/Skydiving/Iowa/index.html>,
24 <http://www.1800skyride.com/Skydiving/nebraska/index.html>, and 25 <http://www.1800skyride.com/Skydiving/oklahoma/index.html>. (See Exhibit G attached 26 hereto.)

27 12. Paragraph 17 of the Georgia Consent Order (Trial Exhibit 461 and Exhibit 28 H) prohibits Defendants from representing that they have affiliations with companies when none exists:

 The SkyRide Defendants are hereby enjoined from representing that they have affiliations, partnerships, or business relationships with companies or vendors with which they have no legally enforceable agreement to provide services to consumers prior to any representation.

1 13. Defendants currently maintain websites that violate this prohibition. For 2 example, on their kansasskydiving.com website, Defendants invite consumers to 3 “[e]xperience the adrenaline pumping action of skydiving from an airplane high in the 4 Kansas sky!” There are no skydiving centers in Kansas that accept certificates from 5 Defendants. See Exhibit I. There also are no skydiving centers in Utah, Nebraska, 6 Oklahoma that accept the certificates sold by Defendants, yet the same representations are 7 made about each State. Exhibit J. On Defendants’ website, Utahskydiving.com, 8 Defendants represent that to consumers on the question of “What areas do you service in 9 Utah,” that “Utah Skydiving is a part of the largest network of skydiving dropzones in the 10 United States including locations within driving distance of Salt Lake City, West Valley 11 City, Provo, West Jordan, and numerous other cities in Utah.” Exhibit K.

12 14. Defendants’ websites make same representation about Wyoming. There are 13 no skydiving centers that accept certificates from Defendants. In fact, there are no 14 skydiving centers at all in the State of Wyoming as well as several other states, including 15 New Hampshire. See Exhibit L.

16 15. Defendants maintain a website at http://www.skydivinginaz.com/04-
17 glendale-skydiving.html, that purports to offer skydiving in Glendale, Arizona even 18 though there is no skydiving center there:

4 (Exhibit M)

5 16. Defendants' violations of Paragraph 17 of the Georgia Consent Order (Trial
6 Exhibit 461 attached hereto as Exhibit G) have expanded beyond the skydiving industry
7 and into other industries such as racing stock cars. For example, a printout from 8 racingstockcars.com represents that Defendants are affiliated with Michigan International 9 Speedway (Exhibit N) and invites the consumer to make a reservation for Michigan
10 International Speedway. The whois.domaintools.com evidences that racingstockcars.com
11 is owned by IGOVincent. (Exhibit O.) Michigan International Speedway does not 12 accept the gift certificates or coupons sold by 1-800-Skyride, ThrillPlanet.com or 13 IGOVincent, Inc. (Exhibit P.)

14 17. Defendants make the same false representations about affiliations with other 15 NASCAR raceways when no such affiliation or associate exists. Defendants' website, 16 www.racingstockcars.com provides a list of "Nascar Race Tracks" and includes the well-
17 known logos of two dozens speedways across the country, including Daytona 18 International Speedway, Pocono Raceway, Talleadega Superspeedway and Watkins Glen 19 International. (Exhibit Q.)

20 18. Defendants represent to the consuming public that they have an existing 21 network of providers and are expanding their scheme into such areas as scuba diving,
22 warbirds, hot air balloons, ATV adventures, stock car racing, speed car racing, flying 23 lessons, white water river rafting, hang gliding, horse riding, adventure travel and 24 helicopter rides. (Exhibit R.)

25 19. Paragraph 20 of the Georgia Consent Order (Trial Exhibit 461 attached 26 hereto as Exhibit G) requires Defendants to post in a conspicuous location on the "about 27 us" or "contacts" page of their websites the physical address, telephone number, and 28

1 additional contact information for their corporate headquarters. Hundreds of Defendants'
2 websites fail to comply with this requirement as the printouts for the following websites
3 illustrate: <http://www.thrillplanet.com/Skydiving/tempe/index.html>;
4 <http://www.thrillplanet.com/Skydiving/mesa/index.html>;
5 <http://www.1800skyride.com/Skydiving/fargo/contact.html> (Exhibit S.)

6 20. Currently, there are home pages of numerous websites that do not include or 7 provide any disclosure in the “about us” or “contacts” sections that 1-800-Skyride or 8 IGOVincent, Inc. is the owning entity and/or affiliation; do not provide or identify the 9 location of the corporate headquarters or indicate any physical address; do not provide any 10 “terms and conditions,” or only provide a link to “terms and conditions” that is in a font 11 type much smaller than the text on the same page; do not indicate that they are not at the 12 locale being advertised on the website; do not identify themselves as a booking agent, and 13 do not reveal that no contractual relationship actually exists between 1-800-Skyride and a 14 particular drop zone.

15 21. Defendants’ websites fail to provide sufficient information to consumers to 16 enable them to understand or appreciate that the several websites claiming to offer 17 services within a locale or geographic area actually are all created and/or owned by 18 Defendants.

19 22. Defendants’ website www.skydiving.com represents to consumers that if 20 they are “Looking for a safe, professional place to skydive? We have hundreds of 21 locations across North America.” (Exhibit T.) That website proceeds to list locations of 22 their skydiving centers all across the United States. For example, the website represents 23 that the following list are the “Arizona Skydiving Locations: Chandler Arizona
24 Skydiving, Gilbert Arizona Skydiving, Glendale Arizona Skydiving, Mesa Arizona
25 Skydiving, Peoria Arizona Skydiving, Phoenix Arizona Skydiving, Scottsdale Arizona
26 Skydiving, Tempe Arizona Skydiving, and Tucson Arizona Skydiving. (Exhibit T.)
27
28

1 23. Defendants continue to use language and statements such as “we” and 2 “our” to refer to their facilities, equipment, and staff. For example, www.skydiving.com
3 indicates that “our canopies fly at approximately 20 mph,” “we now use the latest ram air 4 canopies,” and “we teach you to pack as the course progresses so that you will be 5 competent at all aspects of skydiving before we are finished with you.” (Exhibit U.)

6 24. I recognize and am familiar with the skydiving photos that were taken by 7 Jussie Laine, a photographer residing in Finland, and owned by him. I have 8 communicated with Mr. Laine in the last couple of weeks and know that even though he 9 has never authorized Defendants’ use of his photos, Defendants continue to display and 10 heavily use Mr. Laine’s on hundreds of their websites. Attached are a few sample photos 11 from Jussi Laine bearing his copyright and printouts of Defendants’ websites using those 12 same photos. (Exhibit V and C.)

13 25. Paragraph 22 of the Georgia Consent Order (Trial Exhibit 461 attached
14 hereto as Exhibit G) requires that Defendant Atlanta SC “post in a conspicuous location
15 on the Directions page of its Web site the approximate driving distance to the location 16 where consumers will be receiving services for the cities listed on its directions page.”
17 Defendants fail to comply with this requirement by not stating the distances. Exhibit W.

18 26. Paragraph 35 of the Georgia Consent Order (Trial Exhibit 461 attached 19 hereto as Exhibit G) required Defendants to “post in a conspicuous location on the about 20 us page of each of their Web sites a statement that the SkyRide Defendants serve only as a 21 booking agent for affiliates, partners or vendors available to provide the requested
22 services.” The link is required to be on each page of Defendants’ websites. Defendants 23 fail to comply with this requirement. Examples include the 1800skyride.com websites for 24 such locations as Scottsdale, Tempe, Wyoming, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, and Oklahoma.
25 (Exhibit X, S, I and J.)

26
27 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

May 6, 2005

To whom it may concern

It is with great displeasure that I must write this letter in regards to Casa, Inc (dba Skyride) and its owners Cary Quattrochi and Ben Butler.

I first learned of this company when it was revealed that all the images from our website had been used to create a large number of websites promoting skydiving schools which do not exist. Not only had images been lifted from our site but the entire layout complete with logos had been used. The copyright theft was so severe that we ourselves had difficulty determining which site was ours. We had to resort to enlarging our banner to tell the difference.

Upon researching the situation, I found that the websites were owned by a business called Skyride, a skydive booking company. Skyride were using the cloned sites to redirect potential customers who were looking for skydive schools in their area away from legitimate locations. This tactic misleads the consumer and has funneled funds away from the local economies.

Once the copyright theft was discovered, we immediately emailed the fraudulent sites to ask that our images not be used. Skyride never responded. I later spoke with a Skyride representative who denied her company's involvement with the fraudulent sites. Upon consulting with a lawyer, we learned the only way to resolve this issue was to file a lawsuit in Atlanta. As we are a small skydiving school in Manitoba Canada, it was not feasible to spend the money required to shut down the sites.

The copyright theft we have endured has not been limited to our corporate identity. A website called "Adventure Skydiving Tennessee (which claims to have served TN for over 20 yrs) has my personal image on its banner. Moving the mouse over the banner reveals a meta-tag which claims that I am their chief instructor. The logo that was stolen was my personal intellectual property as I designed it myself.

Admittedly, theft is a serious accusation. I ask not that you take my grievances at face value but rather check the websites for yourself. Our site is www.vtairbase.skydiving.com. The Tennessee site is www.tnskydiving.com.

Other sites are:

<http://www.skydivingal.com/>

<http://www.arkansasskydiving.com/>

<http://colorado-skydiving.com/>

<http://skydiveconnecticut.com/>

<http://www.skydivingillinois.com/>

<http://www.iowaskydiving.com/>

<http://kansasskydiving.com/>

<http://www.kentuckyskydive.com/>

<http://www.minnesotaskydiving.com/>

<http://skydiverns.com/>

<http://www.skydivesaintlouis.com/>

<http://www.montanaskydiver.com/>

<http://www.trentonskydive.com/>

<http://www.northdakotaskydiving.com/>

<http://www.ohioskydiving.com/>

<http://www.oregonskydiving.com/>

<http://www.pittsburghskydive.com/>

<http://www.skydivesc.com/>

<http://www.washingtonskydiving.com/>

These sites have no physical locations. They use our corporate logo and layout and some pages are direct copies. A lookup on the registrants reveals that Skyride owns these sites.

This is the caliber of the individuals who own Skyride. Their actions show little to no regard for rules and laws if they can benefit. Skydiving is a high risk sport that has a high potential for tragedy.

I personally do not feel that Casa Inc. or its owners show the integrity required to run a responsible skydiving business. Their practices show a proclivity toward breaking rules and laws if they can get away with it. This is a poor trait in those charged with the safety of skydive student operations.

Sincerely,
Tim Eason
